TEXAS HOLD'EM

CODE OF CONDUCT

All players must adhere to the Code of Conduct as failure to do so may result in the player being asked to vacate the poker area.

Any decision made by the Reef Casino in respect to violations of the Code of Conduct shall be final.

Players are required to make a decision on their hand within acceptable time limits.

Players must ensure they do not show their cards, either deliberately or inadvertently, to another player.

If a player becomes aware of another player's cards then all players must be shown those cards.

Players are not to communicate information to another player in respect to the cards whether the cards are active or inactive.

Players are expected to keep all chips visible on the table while playing and are not to remove or add any part of their table stake unless allowed by the rules.

During a round of play only English must be spoken.

Players not involved in the game should remain quiet and not comment on the continuing round of play in any manner.

Conversations considered to be disruptive to other players during a round of play, will not be tolerated.

Players must also ensure they do not display any form of body language that could be construed as communication with another player.

If a player observes an error being made, they must inform the dealer.

Players should announce their intention in respect to their hand. All wagers declared must be placed in one motion. 'String betting' will not be tolerated.
